FINE PLAY BY THE HOOSIERS

They Do Good Work at the Bat and in the Field, and Win Another Victory.

Manager Spence Shifts His Players Around, and the Result Is Quite Satisfactory-Other League and Association Games.

ecial to the Indianapolis Journes. PHILADELPHIA, June 15 .- The Indianapolis club put up a very stiff game of ball to-day, and beat the Philadelphias by a score of 5 to 4. Both teams used the bat vigorously, and the home nine bad the best of the hitting, and also the fielding. Manager Spence changed his team around, in the hope of securing better team work, and he is well satisfied with the outcome of to-day's work. Shomberg covered first well, while Hines, in center-field, made two brilliant catches. Bassett made his reappearance on second base, and he also played well. His fumble of a bad ball did no damage. Glasscock made two errors in the second inning, which gave the home team two runs. Denny, on third, played in his usual incomparable style. The visitors bit Buffinton very hard, and had It not been for his very good support the Indianapolis score would have been much larger. Seery led the batting for the Indianapolis. The visitors made four runs in the first inning. Singles by Hines, Glasscock, and Shomberg, and a long two-baser to right field earned three of the runs, and Denny scored on a muffed thrown Seary hit to left field for two bases, and scored on Glasscock's single in the same direction. The visitors are badly off for pitchers. Shreve, Moffett and Healy have very sore arms, but one of the first two will have to pitch to-morrow. Healy did well to-day, and he was effective when good work was needed. He struck the side out in the third inning, and in the ninth inning struck out McGuire and Fogarty. Score: INDIANAPOLIS. PHILADELPHIA Guire, 3 0 0 0 2 0 Hines, 0 Sh'mb'g, 1 1

Other League Games. DETROIT, 3; NEW YORK, 2.

New York, June 15 .- The New Yorks lost another game to Detroit to-day, after they had the game well in hand. Stupid base running lost the Giants one or two runs, while umpire Lynch's decision declaring Thompson safe in the eighth inning enabled the Wolverines to make two runs and win the game. Thompsou was touched by Dan Richardson while running to second, and the fielder held the ball for a short while, but Thompson had run heavily against Richardson, and the latter finally dropped the ball. Ewing protested against Lynch's decision several minutes, but Lynch peremptorily ordered him to play. Thompson got to third on Rowe's hit and home on White's safe grounder. Rowe scored the winning run on Hanlon's sacrifice to Ewing, who threw wild so the plate. Score:

WASHINGTON, 7; PITTSBURG, 3. WASHINGTON, June 15 .- The Washington club defeated the Pittsburgs again to-day by better work in the field and timely hitting when men were on the bases. Galvin pitched a very clever game, but his support, with the exceptions of Miller and Dunlap, was poor. Dunlap played a splendid game, and some of his stops deprived the home club of two-base bits. Myers also fielded bis position in first-class style, and his three-bagger in the first inning, when the bases were fall, had a great deal to do with the result of the game. O'Day pitched splendidly, and his support was almost perfect. Score:

BOSTON, 5; CHICAGO, 2. Boston, June 15.-Clarkson's present of a magnificent silver service in the second inning to-day braced the great pitcher to such an extent that he pitched the great game of his life. Anson's aggregation played good ball, but they sould not bat. The "old man's" home-run hit in the first alone prevented them from a shut-out. Farrell's error, a wild throw in the third, lost two runs. Johnston's batting was terrific, he making a hit every time he came to the bat, and one of them was a tremendous drive for four bags over the left-field fence. Boston's only

Sr. Louis, June 15.—The Browns slaughtered young Chamberlain in the first two innings today, and out of compassion Captain Comiskey allowed Stratton to relieve him. The game was won in these innings, as Devlin pitched in magnificent form, but three scattering hits being made off his delivery. Mack especially distinguished himself by his school-boy tactics at the bat, and succeeded in making a monkey out of himself. Smith was batted out of the box, and Corkhill changed places with him in the seventh inning. Davis became sick after the first inning, and Hankinson took his place. BROOKLYN, 3; BALTIMORE, 1. BALTIMORE, June 15 .- The home team announced that Cunningham was to pitch, but at the last moment substituted Kilroy, at which Captain Orr, of the Brooklyns, objected, and his objections continued in force until nearly 5 o'clock, when he concluded to play the game under protest. Kilroy pitched in good form and was fairly well supported, but the home batsmen could not hit Hughes's curves at the right time, and their nine hits only netted one run. The visitors, on the other hand, got in hits when they were needed and won with comparative ease. Pinckney's batting was the feature.
